deal of excitement has prevailed in camp for some days past respecting the report of Gen Fremont's supersedure; but Washington advices at headquarters mention nothing of the kind. Gen Fremont's removal would cause intense excitement and no little trouble in camp. A number of officers declare that they will resign in that event, or will create him dictator of the southwest, independent of the administration, which is bitterly deudicious policy respecting this department. The list of rebels killed in the battle last Friday now number 127. No intelligence has yet been received of Gen Johnson's as-
